Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. For claims 1 and 9, "the front part" of the main body and the lower cover lack antecedent basis. For claim 2, "the bottom part" lacks antecedent basis. For claim 7, "the open portions" lack antecedent basis. For claim 8, "the floor" lacks antecedent basis. For claim 11, "the open portions" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 5-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mandel et al (6,036,292). Mandel teaches a refrigerator (Fig. 1) comprising: a main body (2) with a storage compartment, doors (34,43), and hinges and a lower cover (57) mounted to the lower end of the front part of the main body such that the front part of the cover and front part of the main body lie in the same plane (See Fig. 7, for example). The lower cover also includes openings/open portions (99,80-83) and an engaging member (184) bent from the upper end thereof. The engaging member engages with a groove (bottom of 17; see Fig. 10) at the bottom part of the body and the openings engage with corresponding openings and screws (see Fig. 10). Note: limitations found in "for"/intended use limitations have not been given any weight in the claims.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3 and 4 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Janet M. Wilkens whose telephone number is (571) 272-6869. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday.
